Picture Story of Fire Horror

This is the top of the tenement fire trap in East 100th street, New York City, in which 12 people died. Above is the last person rescued from the blazing inferno, Edward Bronstein, being comforted by his sweetheart, Evelyn Rose. At the right is Marnie Friedman who rescued a number of tenements, Bronstein among them.

Baptist Preacher Criticizes Long-Standing Doctrine

NEW YORK, April 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Rev. Cornelius Wolkstein, pastor of the wealthy Park Avenue Baptist Church, called the "Rockefeller Church" aroused considerable discussion among his parishioners today as a result of his sermon yesterday in which he criticized some long-standing Baptist doctrines as reactionary and urged his congregation to vote to abandon them.

He also defended the stage and had a good word for Sir Oliver Lodge, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle and John D. Rockefeller, Jr., heard the sermon.

"Our practice of excluding members of other denominations unless they are baptized again in our rite, is out of harmony with the spirit that is growing in the churches," Dr. Wolkstein said. "We have already opened our communion table to other Christians and this proposed step follows that logically."

"Do you suppose that in heaven when communion is celebrated, that John Calvin, John Knox, John and Charles Wesley and other great leaders in the non-Baptist world will be denied the privilege of sitting with Baptists?"

"We need a greater tolerance for the various sects, isms and fads that are springing up about the fringes of the older churches. I do not regard them as heretical. They are the result of a special urge on the part of people who are seeking what they think the church cannot furnish them."

"Sir Oliver Lodge is one of the outstanding psychist of his generation, and he is trying sincerely and earnestly to lift the veil. So also Conan Doyle, a high-minded and conscientious man."

In Ohio Town As "King" Of Cult Colony

MARYSVILLE, O., April 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Michigan authorities are expected here today to attempt identification of a man believed by Sheriff Charles O'Neil to be "King" Benjamin Farnell, much sought leader of the House of David, a religious cult at Benton Harbor, Mich., which is now the subject of an investigation by the state of Michigan.

Arrested yesterday by the sheriff after he had communicated with Sheriff W. J. Smith, of Kent county, Michigan, and had received a detailed description of Farnell, the man last night refused to make known his name, when asked if he was Farnell. He answered that he was "just a man."

He admitted, the sheriff said, that he had been a member of the House of David, but insisted he was "not the man they wanted."

The sheriff is holding him on an investigation charge.

Driving a small truck in which he had living quarters, the man appeared here about three months ago, the sheriff said. By grinding tools and knives, with equipment he had in the truck, the man made a living.

Always apparently well supplied with money, the sheriff said, he had a money bag filled with bills, and coins when arrested. The description of Farnell, the sheriff said, tallies identically with the man he has under arrest.

On Daylight Savings

COLUMBUS, O., April 30.—(By the Associated Press)—With Olmsted, Dayton and Middletown, changing to daylight saving time yesterday, "fast" time was in effect today for the summer in most of the principal cities of the state. Springfield, Lima and Portsmouth are continuing on central time. Hamilton's city council voted down an ordinance providing for turning the clocks up an hour during the summer, but most of the city's residents are using the fast time. Chicago and New York went on daylight saving time yesterday.

To Oppose Wells' Book

CLEVELAND, O., April 30.—Protest against the use of H. G. Wells' "Outline of History" in public schools will be made at the 31st-32nd annual state convention of the Sons of the American Revolution, which meets here tomorrow, Harry H. Hoard, chairman of the entertainment committee announced here today.

"We expect to file a vigorous protest against this book because when the young American goes to school he wants to know more about Washington and Franklin than he does about Mohammedism," Mr. Hoard said.

"We deplore a skipping over of the American Revolution period in American history classics. We believe we will make better citizens if we connect tradition with a discussion of modern problems."

Two hundred delegates will be in session for tomorrow's meeting.

Assaults Boy

LOGAN, O., April 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Sam Farley, Haydenville, deputy sheriff, was at liberty under $1,000 bond here today on charges of shooting and beating Alfred Knapper, in Haydenville yesterday. The lad was said to have been on top of a shed, watching a baseball game. Farley is declared to have shot him through the leg, then beating him with the butt end of his revolver. The incident has aroused strong feeling in Haydenville.

Eleven Obians were killed in auto accidents over the week-end, tabulations by United Press today reveal. Four were killed at Cleveland. Ardent Trux, Mrs. Agnes Trux, his wife, and Mrs. Mary Biddle, her sister, were killed when an interurban car hit their auto. Robert Livingston met death when his auto swerved into a telephone pole.

Akron reported three dead. They are: Guy Gayner, Harry Hawkins, Frank Mundel.

Frank Kurizial was killed at Toledo; John Kellough at Mt. Sterling; Everett Stevens at Pawtucket, and Miss Mildred Campbell at Tippecanoe, near Dayton.

Reports of auto accident deaths from 12 other cities throughout the country brought the total number killed in United States to 34. Los Angeles reported five; New York, three; Chicago, Detroit, St. Louis, Ypsilanti, Mich., and Wheeling, W. Va., two each and Kansas City, New Orleans, St. Paul, Scranton, W. ### Germany Makes New Offer

BERLIN, April 30.—(By the United Press)—The German cabinet has decided to offer France 20 billion gold marks instead of twenty. A further increase may be agreed upon if experts decide Germany is capable of paying. The German offer, which probably will be embodied in note, will probably be sent Tuesday night. It plans for military guarantees for France, but demands immediate evacuation of the Ruhr at the moment of signature of the agreement.

LONDON, April 30.—(By the Associated Press)—The British, American and Italian ambassadors conferred today with Chancellor Ciano regarding Germany's new reparations offer, says a Central News dispatch from Berlin this afternoon.

Woman Killed By Blast; 2 Women Held Suspects

PADUCAH, KY., April 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Mrs. Henry Wagner, alias Thomas, and Mrs. Emma Skiffins, both middle-aged women were arrested in connection with the death of Mrs. Rosetta Daugherty Warren, who was killed in an explosion which wrecked her home here early today.

The women under arrest are charged with wilful murder, conspiracy to cause the death of Mrs. Warren.

Mrs. Warren's three children, who were asleep at the time of the explosion, escaped injury.

Police and county authorities claim to have information pointing to participation of both women in the crime; it is said. Mrs. Wagner had threatened the life of Mrs. Warren on several occasions, they said. The Skiffins woman is alleged to have aided and abetted in the conspiracy.

The Wagner woman's motive is inexplicable at this time, but police thought it would ultimately be traced to a mad jealousy due to Warren's marriage. The dead woman's husband grew up in the home of Mrs. Wagner, it is understood.

Four Traffic Victims

CLEVELAND, O., April 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Arden Truxel died in a hospital early today from injuries received yesterday when an interurban car crashed into an automobile in which he was riding with his wife and Mrs. Bissell, her sister, in May township. The women were killed outright.

Four persons dead, one probably fatally injured and fifteen injured, was yesterday's traffic toll in Cleveland and suburbs.

French Watch Turks

PARIS, April 30.—(By the Associated Press)—As a precaution against what is regarded as the threatening gesture of the Turks in concentrating 20,000 troops along the northern border of Syria, the French government has decided to reinforce its own military strength in the mandated territory by two divisions. This will place 46,000 men at the disposal of General Weygand, who sails late this week for Beirut to take over the duties of French high Commissioner in Syria and commander of the army in the east.

The reinforcement of the 26,000 French troops already in Syria was decided upon, it is understood at a conference between Premier Poincare and General Pella, French high commissioner at Constantinople and head of the French delegation at the Lausanne conference.

General Pella has been assured by Ismet Pasha that the Turks are not concentrating their forces against France, but the Paris government looks with disfavor on what it describes as an effort by Ankara to exert pressure on France in the Near East.

Daugherty At His Desk

WASHINGTON, April 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Returning to his desk after an absence of nearly two months in Florida, and North Carolina, recuperating from illness, Attorney General Daugherty was preparing to give attention to President Harding's request for a ruling as to the president's authority to order the use of naval ships in combating rum runners. In a few days Mr. Daugherty plans to leave for a stay of several weeks at Atlantic City, where he hopes to throw off the last effects of the illness from which he now has virtually recovered.

Emerson Hough, Noted Author, Dies

CHICAGO, April 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Emerson Hough, author, died in a hospital in Evanston today. Mr. Hough was 66 years old and was taken to the hospital last Thursday, suffering from intestinal obstruction. An operation was performed on Saturday. Heart and respiratory complications caused death.

Mr. Hough, who was a devotee of outdoor life, had written many western stories. His most recent book, "The Covered Wagon," recently was reproduced in motion pictures. In the winter of 1906, donning skis, he traveled over the Yellowstone National Park and his activities after this trip were credited with inspiring the act of congress protecting buffalo herds. Mr. Hough explored many of the wildest and most-out-of-the-way corners of the country, and during his earlier years gathered much of the material for his later books of travel, adventure and romance. Many of his novels were of the historical romance type, involving the building of the west with its pioneer difficulties. The author was born in Newton, Ia., June 28, 1857. He was graduated from the University of Iowa in 1880. Soon afterwards began his travels in response to his love for the outdoor life and the beauties of nature. In 1897, he married Charlotte E. Cheselore, of Chicago, who survives him. Among his best known books are "Fifty-Four Forty, or Fight," and "The Mississippi Bubble." He also wrote many short stories and magazine articles. He was president of the Society of Midland Authors in 1917 and 1918. Although his intimate friends were aware he had been taken to the Evanston Hospital last week, the announcement of his death was a shock to many.

Drive On Bootleggers

NEW YORK, April 30.—(By the Associated Press)—New York's most effective dry enforcement agents will be transferred to Washington this week to conduct a vigorous drive against bootleggers in social aid official circles. The New York Herald says. Two of this territory agents are said to have been in the capital for the last three weeks working under cover. Other secret agents. The Herald says, are trying to determine whether local prohibition agents have been extorting money from the New Jersey and Long Island bootleggers in return for immunity from arrest.

Check For 2 Cents

LIMA, O., April 30.—(By the Associated Press)—A check for two cents was cleared in the regular way through the banks here today. The unusually small check was drawn by John T. Cotner, clerk of courts, to R. S. Steiner, attorney, and was necessary in the settlement of an estate. It was said to be the smallest check that ever passed through the clearing house.

Russia Lets Out Howl

LAUSANNE, April 30.—(By the Associated Press)—An official protest against Russia being arbitrarily kept out of the conference, was sent to the Near East peace conference today by M. Vorovsky, the Soviet representative here. He said such a decision was in direct violation of the terms of the invitation sent to Russia by Great Britain, France, and Italy preceding the first Lausanne conference November 14, 1922.

500 Quarts Taken Off Train

COLUMBUS, O., April 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Warrants for the arrest of two other attaches of a Pennsylvania passenger train from which 500 quarts of liquor was taken here yesterday by State Prohibition Agents, were waiting to be served here today. The raid of the Pennsylvania train here, followed on the heels of a similar raid of another Pennsylvania train at Cleveland last Saturday night. Both trains were made up in Florida and according to prohibition agents carried liquor which had been smuggled from Havana.

Two negro porters, Richard Suter and Luther Biddle, were arraigned in a justice's court here on charges of illegal transportation of liquor, and in default of $1,000 bond, were placed in jail. Liquor has been smuggled into Ohio on Pullman cars at the rate of 5,000 quarts a day, according to a statement of Deputy State Prohibition Commissioner Frank S. Evans. The man who chartered the state room of the Pullman car, which was missing when prohibition agents boarded the car, it was said, and it is believed that he escaped along the route. Four railroad employees were arrested at the East Fifth street Pennsylvania station in Cleveland, in connection with the raid there. They are George Reed, baggage master and Ernest Downey, station master, and two negro porters.

Tammany Boss Fails To Win Suit

Charles F. Murphy

A jury in New York failed to agree in the suit for $173,000 brought by Tammany Boss Charles F. Murphy against Louis N. Hartog. Murphy alleged that he invested the money with Hartog in a glucose deal, but he wanted to get out because, he alleged, Hartog was a war profiteer. It was alleged Murphy was brought into the company merely that his political influence could get glucose for Hartog during the war. For the first time in his 20 years as a political power, Murphy went on the stand and withstood a severe grilling from Hartog's attorney.

Mob Storms Jail; Seizes Negro And Hangs Him

COLUMBIA, MO., April 30.—Leaders of the mob which stormed the county jail here yesterday afternoon, cut through steel doors with acetylene torches and hanged James Scott, negro, charged with attacking the 14-year-old daughter of Dr. H. F. Almstedt, head of the German department of the University of Missouri, known, according to R. M. Hulen, Boone county prosecuting attorney, who promises an immediate grand jury investigation.

At least one non-resident of Columbia led the mob which was said to have been made up of the rougher element of the city.

"The state has evidence enough to identify the man who furnished the rope and the men who threw the negro off the bridge," Hulen said.

Fred Brown, sheriff, powerless to oppose the mob, hurriedly telephoned to Governor Arthur M. Hyde for troops, but despite the prompt order of the governor sending the Columbia battery, the negro had been hanged before the guardsmen could be mobilized.

Scott was hurried to a bridge near where he was alleged to have accosted the girl, and despite the pleadings of Dr. Almstedt that the law be permitted to take its course, and Scott's own reiteration of innocence, a rope was tied about his neck according to a coroner's jury and he probably died instantly.

The girl was not injured in the alleged attack. She said, Scott, whom she identified positively, had summoned her to aid another child caught on the bridge and then seized her, but was frightened away by the appearance of a band car.

When the sheriff saw that his pleading would have no influence on the mob, he sent for Dr. Almstedt, thinking that the voice of the father of the girl might stop the lynchers. By the time the professor arrived the negro had been removed and the crowd had started for the bridge. Throughout the whole affair the mob was orderly.

"Mister," the negro said to a white man standing nearby, "before God I'm an innocent man. I could not do with a lie in my mouth. I never done it."

Two other negro prisoners in the cell with Scott, accused of similar offenses against negro girls, were unharmed by the mob.

Dr. Almstedt said, "I wanted to see the guilty man punished, but not by mob violence."

"Do you believe he was the guilty man?" he was asked.

"I have no doubt that he was," Dr. Almstedt replied. "He was, identified positively by my daughter."

Daugherty Partially Sustained In Rulings

WASHINGTON, April 30.—(By the Associated Press)—The ruling of Attorney General Daugherty against the serving of liquor on American ships on the high seas was over-turned today by the supreme court which held at the same time, however, that the ban prohibiting both American and foreign ships from bringing liquor stocks into American ports under bond was legal and enforceable.

The court held that the prohibition amendment could not legally be applied to prevent American ships from selling on the voyages when they are outside American territorial waters. To that extent the decision reversed a decision in the case by Federal Judge Hand, at New York.

Within the three-mile limit, however, the court found that an entirely different situation obtained. Sustaining the position taken by Judge Hand on that point, the decision declared it illegal for American or foreign ships to bring into American ports or waters liquor sealed in bond for the use of passengers on outgoing voyages.

The decision regarded by the federal government as one of the most important yet handed down in regard to prohibition enforcement was read by Justice Van Devanter. Justice McReynolds and Sutherland dissented. Justice Sutherland delivered dissenting opinion explaining that he agreed that American ships cannot have aboard intoxicating liquor in American territorial waters but believed the prohibition should not apply to foreign ships. The majority opinion held that the words "transportation" and "importation" as used in prohibition law are to be taken in their ordinary sense. Transportation is held to be carrying from one locality to another; it added, and it is not necessary that the transfer of possession or title should be contemplated.

In this connection the court observed that one cannot carry liquor in his own automobile for his own use.

Importation consists, the court said, of bringing a commodity into a country from the outside, entrance through a customs house, not being necessary to constitute importation in the true sense. The term "territory of the United States," was given the common definition as confined to territory over the United States exercises jurisdiction as a sovereign power—and three miles at sea from its shore lines.

Under this interpretation the court stated that no liquor could be brought into the territorial waters of the United States except through the Panama Canal, but that while the prohibition against importation, or presence aboard under any circumstances, was complete, neither the amendment nor the enforcement act had made any reference to liquor aboard American ships on the high seas outside American territorial jurisdiction.

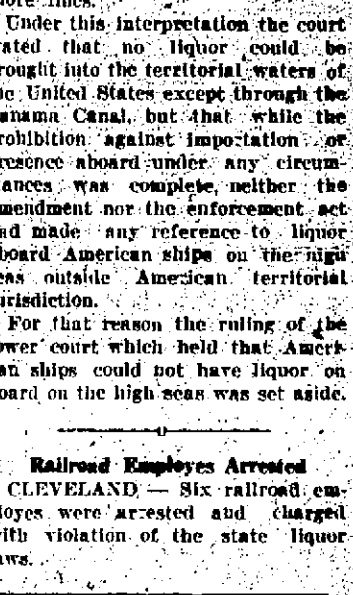

For that reason the ruling of the lower court which held that American ships could not have liquor on board on the high seas was set aside.

The Greatest Human Interest Story of the Year

Within the last year a famous banker has spent more than a million dollars to determine the paternity of his wife's child; a University professor and his wife claim that another man is the father of the latter's child; a mother and father assert that a BOY was born to them, while the hospital authorities insist that a little GIRL is their child; and now comes the story of a woman who led her husband to believe that she bore twins; who kept the children night and day from her husband; then when he finally stole in to see them, he found two large dolls. Every one of these cases is known to the American public; every bit of news about them has eagerly been read and discussed in 30,000,000 homes.

And here is a story that combines the human interest angle of all of them!

Baby Eats Strychnine Tablets; Dies, Third Victim In County In 4 Days

Less than a half hour after eating about six strychnine tablets Sunday afternoon, Denver Rogers Meadows, one year old son of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Meadows, of Candy Run, about two miles from Lucasville, died, the second child victim of such poisoning in Scioto county within four days and the third person to die of medicine tablets or pills within the last days.

The age of the child and the fact that about six of the tablets were eaten brought death within less than thirty minutes. Spasms developed immediately and the powerful effect of the poison caused a quick constriction of the muscles that closed the jaws so that nothing could be done to remove the poison from the child's stomach.

Death came at the home of the grandmother Mrs. Myra Hall about a mile from the farm occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Meadows, who were formerly residents of Portsmouth. The mother and child were at the home for only a short visit. The baby, a year old Mar. 11 last was just learning to walk and while in the front room of the house found on the floor an old face powder box containing the pills left at the home for W. M. Johnson, the baby's great grandfather who has been ill with pneumonia. The box was kept on top of the telephone near a door. The closing of the door had jarred the box to the floor.

The great grandfather was in the room with the child and he discovered him eating the pills about the same time that Frank Young, Mrs. Hall's son-in-law stepped into the room and also noticed the pill box in the baby's hand. He rushed outside and asked Mrs. Hall what kind of tablets were in the box and on being told the child was eating them, Mrs. Hall hurried inside, and had the mother give the child melted lard. Before the lard could cause the child to vomit the poison had caused a sudden contraction of the muscles, the jaws closing tightly.

A physician was called but when he arrived he found the child beyond human aid. Later Coroner Virgil Fowler was called and he visited the home and examined the child's body which showed the usual conditions that characterize strychnine poisoning.

There were about nine tablets in the box and only three could be found after the box was taken away from the child. The remainder were burned before the arrival of the physician and coroner and it was not possible to tell the amount of strychnine the tablets contained.

Mr. and Mrs. Meadows have three other children, Glenn, Andrew and Elbert. The family lived on Gallia Street and Keaton Street and in King's addition, Fullerton, before ship moving to a branch of Candy Run. Mr. Meadows at one time worked as fireman on the N. & W. Mrs. Hall, mother of Mrs. Meadows, formerly lived in Portsmouth.

Frank Young, Mrs. Hall's son-in-law, who took the box of tablets from the child, lives at 213 Front Street. The body was turned over to Undertaker Hartman at Lucasville and burial was made this afternoon in Glendale cemetery, Jefferson township.

TAKING TANLAC

"Tanlac has completely relieved me of a case of stomach trouble which I thought was hopeless," declared Mrs. Louis Lachmaier, 1514 Akron St., Massillon, Ohio.

"My condition had been serious for a long time. I was forced to live entirely off of milk and woe unto me if I ventured to eat any solid food. It simply could not digest, and would bring on terrible pain and violent spells of palpitation. My nerves drove me almost frantic, and for nights at a time I could hardly sleep a wink. I was simply miserable and almost a shadow of my former self."

"The Tanlac treatment brought almost immediate improvement, and in a few weeks I was off my milk diet and eating every kind of food on the market. I have taken five bottles now and have more than recovered all I lost during my long illness. I am the picture of health and strength, and my gratitude to Tanlac is simply boundless."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitutes. Over 37-million bottles sold.—advertisement.

Local Motorists View Car In Which 4 Persons Were Hurt

Mr. and Mrs. George Elmer and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Duncan motored to Washington, C. H. Sunday. They saw a machine, which had been wrecked near Washington, C. H., after it had struck a stone marker in the road, careened off it and struck a telephone pole.

Occupants of the car were injured, one perhaps fatally, and were taken back to Washington, C. H., for treatment. This was on their way home and as they approached the first hill outside of Chillicothe on the Chillicothe-Portsmouth road they saw a Ford touring car, which had plunged off the road, turned over once or twice and was standing on all four wheels after the smoke had cleared away. It is said the only occupant in the car jumped when the machine left the road and was uninjured.

Relative to the accident, near Washington, C. H., a special from that city to the Cincinnati Enquirer Monday said:

WASHINGTON, C. H., April 30—

One woman was injured, perhaps fatally, and three other persons sustained injuries of a serious nature, when an automobile in which they were riding struck a telephone pole near here Sunday.

Mrs. James James, 71 years old, of Syracuse, Ohio, near here, is near death, due to multiple injuries. Her husband, 60, sustained a compound fracture of one leg; Charles Tucker, 22, of Dayton, received a long gash in one leg and Ralph Johnson, 30, was burned severely. Mildred Capelhart, 14, the other occupant of the car, was not injured.

The automobile took fire after the accident, but quick action on the part of the younger occupants of the machine saved the older members of the party from severe burns.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, dress, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Miss Wise:—
Wish you would tell me what's wrong with me. Am I jealous or not. There is a girl where my husband works who seems to think a lot of him and is always giving him candy and chewing gum and when I offer him anything like that he says I don't like candy or gum. Now Dolly this makes me mad and I throw her up to him. He talks about her a great deal and is always talking about her pretty dresses and seems to know all her business. Now would you care if you were me? I can't bear her name. He is good to me, but doesn't seem to care whether I have anything new or not. We have several children and he is proud of them. Dolly I am awfully blue. Tell me what to do. Your advice will be appreciated.

WILD FLOWER.
I think you are making your life miserable and unhappy over nothing. You are very foolish to let yourself get jealous over a girl who works in the same office with your husband.

Even if he does talk about her, that is no reason for you to get jealous. If he mentioned the affairs at the office at all, he would have to mention her along with the others. Talking about her pretty dresses may be a hint to you to doll up a bit. Men and women can't very well work in the same office without speaking, but that is no sign they are in love, not by a jug full. They are anything but that. Just don't invite the girl up and get better acquainted with her and see for yourself what she is like and what she wears. When you come to find out the real facts in the case, the girl may not have a bit of use for your husband.

Dear Dolly:—Did not an account of the death of Rudyard Kipling appear on the front page of the "Times" last fall or winter? About November or December? If not, can you tell me whether he is still living or not. I am under the impression that he is dead, but other persons of much more literary knowledge and authority think that he is still living.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT.
Kipling is very much alive. He gained considerable notoriety last fall when a New York newspaper woman published an alleged interview with him in which he boasted America in everything. He denied being interviewed by the woman, and said he did not say a word that she published, etc. Kipling's home is in England.

Dear Dolly—I am a married woman with three children and my husband don't treat me right. He has mistreated me by going with other women and has left me at night till after midnight by myself, and I am in a strange place. I am so nervous I don't know what to do. He doesn't seem to care for me and the children, and says that he never aims to tie himself down any more and is going out whenever the notion strikes him. When he comes home from work he doesn't want to talk to me. The nights he does not go down he will go out and sit on the porch until bedtime and it is too cold for me to sit out with the baby. He has an affinity and I don't think it is right and I am not going to stand it any longer. Dolly could I get alimony if I went back to my people? I have been living in Portsmouth over three years and like it fine, but I haven't any people here and I have no one to go to with my troubles and my husband won't listen to me. Dolly, please give me a little encouragement.

DISGUSTED WIFE.
I don't think your case is hopeless, and I don't imagine your husband would try and make your home a little more pleasant for him. You did not mention any fault other than going out without you, and not speaking to you. It is better to keep still than to quarrel, and if you are the nagging kind, you would probably be quarrelling all the time if he would talk back to you or help you along. Are you just supposing he has an affinity, or do you know for sure that he has. You must be slipping if you can't keep pace with other women. You did not say anything about money matters, so if you have all you want to spend why not doll yourself up and stop

SOCIAL NEWS

Miss Mary Augustin will entertain the members of the Matron and Maid Club tomorrow afternoon in the Elk Club rooms, instead of at her home on Front street.

out occasionally. You could get someone to care for your children on the evenings you want to go out with your husband or with your girl friends or neighbors. Get upstairs—Go out and stay until after he comes in, even if it is only next door or to one of your neighbors. If you get him anxious, maybe he will stick around to see that you stay at home. I think that it would do you good to go home for a visit, if only for a couple of weeks. You are tired and nervous and homesick, and when you get that way you can imagine most anything.

Marie—Anything that they could use in their home would make an appropriate gift. It need not be expensive, since an announcement does not call for a present. Just enclose your card with the gift. If you think you ought to say anything on it, you might write on the back of it, "With best wishes for a long and happy wedded life," or something to that effect.

Rushdown, Ohio—Dear Dolly:—Please give me several ways to remove tan, for I am tanned very badly.
BROWNIE.
People who live in the country can't very well get rid of tan, as they are out in the sun so much. However, if you want to try your luck you might mix magnesia in soft water to the consistency of paste, then spread it on the face and let it remain for a minute or two; then wash off with castile soap and rinse with soft water.

Mismatched Married Man—It is useless for me to say anything to you, as you admit that you are doing wrong, but refuse to do otherwise. Perhaps I can appeal to your pride, if you happen to know the meaning of the word. Since the woman refuses to have anything to do with you, or even recognize you on the street, I should think you would have pride enough or spunk enough to let her alone. Pick up your self-respect and give the time and affection that you are wasting on this woman, to your wife and children, and see what a difference it will make in your life, and also in theirs. Just try it for awhile, anyway, and see how it works out. After a few weeks you will feel like slapping yourself on the wrist for being such a big clump.

A Silly Woman—If you could read my mail even for a day, you would feel terribly ashamed of yourself for complaining about your lot when you have, as you say, a "darling husband." I hope he thinks he has a darling wife, and I hope you will never give him reason to think otherwise. Since you realize that your case is hopeless so far as the other man is concerned, I think you should eliminate him from your thoughts and your life forever. It is so foolish to long for impossible things. It is like trying to find the end of a rainbow. Even if you had the other man, you would not be satisfied. You would wish for your present hubby. Some people are never satisfied.

A delightful party was given by Garnet Sharpe on Saturday afternoon in honor of her thirteenth birthday anniversary. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in playing games. A wedding of unusual interest, owing to the prominence of the young couple, was quietly and beautifully solemnized this afternoon when Miss Laura Ruth Craigmiles became the bride of Mr. J. Earl Chandler. The ceremony was performed at half after one o'clock in the parsonage of the Trinity Methodist Episcopal church by the pastor, Rev. William C. Millikan, who officiated with the impressive ring ceremony.

The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mohl, a bride and groom of recent date, the former being a nephew of the bride. Mrs. Mohl was charmingly attired in her wedding gown of dark blue tulle with gray accessories, and wore a corsage of butter flowers and roses.

Mrs. Chandler, who is an unusually attractive young woman, was strikingly beautiful in her wedding gown of dark blue crepe, built on Grecian lines, and artistically beaded. She wore a becoming picture hat to correspond and carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses and orchids.

Immediately after the ceremony an informal reception was held for the immediate family at the home of the bride, during which a delicious ice course was served. The rooms were arranged with spring flowers and greenery, and the table was lovely in its appointments of pink and white. Later in the afternoon the happy couple left on a ten days' motor trip that will take them as far east as New York City and will include many places of interest enroute. Mrs. Chandler's traveling suit was a smart sport model with ensemble to harmonize.

Upon their return they will take up their residence with the bride's mother, where they will make their home for the present.

Mrs. Chandler is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Madora Craigmiles of 1730 Sixth street, and for the past few years has been one of the efficient salesgirls in Marting Bros. department store. She has a charming personality and has endeared herself to a large number of friends.

Mr. Chandler is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Chandler of 1902 Grandview avenue. He is quite popular in business and political circles and is at present occupying the position of City Auditor.

The bride presented her attendant with a handsome jewel bracelet, while Mr. Chandler gave his best man a pair of gold cuff links.

The following from Saturday's Daily Telegraph of Wheeling, W. Va., will be read with interest, as Dr. Anna Edward Severinghaus is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Charles Severinghaus of Baird avenue:

"Announcement of the engagement of Miss Sara Ney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Ney, of the Island, to Dr. Anna Edward Severinghaus, of Peking, China, was made today at noon at a luncheon given by her sisters, Misses Virginia and Martha Ney, at their home. Miss Ney plans to sail in June for China and will be married at once by Bishop Herbert Welch, resident bishop of Korea, who was president of Ohio Wesleyan college at Delaware, Ohio, when Miss Ney graduated there.

"Dr. Severinghaus received his education at the University of Wisconsin and took post-graduate work at Columbia University. He is now a member of the staff of Peking Union Medical college. He is a son of Rev. and Mrs. Charles Severinghaus of Portsmouth, Ohio.

Miss Ney graduated at Ohio Wesleyan and took post-graduate work at Cornell and Columbia.

Out-of-town guests at today's luncheon were:

Miss Esther Severinghaus, of Portsmouth, Ohio; Miss Adeline Root of Parkersburg; Miss Helen Rectorford of Cleveland; Mrs. Ernest Eilman and Mrs. Roy Hull, of Dayton; Miss Claire Patterson, of Pittsburgh.

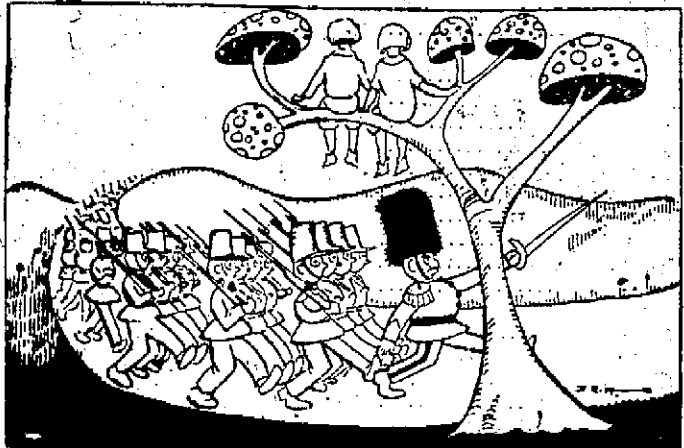

Other guests were: Misses Nettie Young, Virginia Higgins, Lulu Hicks, Catherine McBane, Laura Wincher, Mary Scott, Elena Seamon, Maude Murfin, Elizabeth Seamon, Lillian Murfin, Esther McMillen, Catherine Bryant, Jennie Ball, Helen Garden, Pearl Dorsey, Evelyn Bassett, Elizabeth Hicks, Elizabeth McKee, Catherine Crooks; Mesdames Charles Rhydd, Claude Law, Hoy Poffenberger, George Paul Roberts, Howard Nay, Paul Smith."

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Federated Shop Crafts will meet tonight at Brady's Hall at 7:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present as special reports are to be made.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barker

THE TWINS CAPTURED

Quick as two twins they scrambled up a tree.

That a fat fat,
That a fat fat,
That a fat fat,
That a fat fat,

Nancy and Nick were sitting beside the road in Bing-Lang Land wondering what to do next, when they heard the sound of a drum.

They looked up quickly and saw a company of soldiers coming. "Quick! Let's hide!" said Nick. "They are tin soldiers and if they see us they may put us both in prison because you helped me to escape."

So, quick as two twins they scrambled up a tree right beside the road. And just in time—for with a few more rat a tat tuts, the soldiers reached the very spot where the twins had been sitting. The soldiers never suspected that right over their heads two pairs of eyes were watching everything they did.

"Halt!" commanded Captain Bow Legs. Instantly the soldiers stood like statues. The drummer stopped rat a tatting, and everything was as quiet

"The classic dance revue, given by the Portsmouth and Ironton pupils of Miss Florence Young's classes, was a most delightful and perfectly produced affair with an exceptional display of talent.

The recital showed careful preparation and certainly was a remarkably high recommendation of the work of Miss Young. The recital was held before a big crowd Friday night in the high school auditorium.

The parts taken by the Portsmouth pupils were:

"Drama"—Virginia Wakefield, Moment Lyrique—Virginia Tracy, Sailor's Hornpipe—Betty Reeg, Variance Wakefield, Ruth Watkins.

Soloist—Janet Lee Reeg. Sleigh Bells—Polly Grimes, Virginia Tracy, Mary McGuire, Alberta Ward, Nell Gableman, Monica Distel, Autumn Wind—Fairbelle Mayo, Chinese—The Way of Old Peking—Nell Gableman.

Whistling Boy—Helen Williamson, Martha Peebles, Kathleen Conroy, Jack and Jill—Olive Hartman, Wilma Wakefield, Ruth Marie Friend and Harriet Swalski.

Youth—Florence Young, Ruth Millard.

Dance of the Hour—Portsmouth Pupils.

Soloists—Alberta Ward, Ruth Millard, Olive Hartman, Fairbelle Mayo, Florence Young.

Nursery Rhymes—Ann Louise Davidson, Variance Wakefield, Ruth Watkins, Betty Reeg.

Tiny Tim—Alberta Ward, June Time—Mariann Moore, Virginia Tracy, Donatti Wakefield.

On next Monday evening, at the High School Auditorium, The Portsmouth Community Chorus, which made such a pleasing impression with its mid-winter concert in February, will give another most attractive recital. Our native Indian has always been the source of much inspiration to writers of both poetry and prose and the setting to music by Coleridge-Taylor of Longfellow's immortal work, "Hiawatha," has been a complete success. The chorus is using the "Wedding Feast of Hiawatha," and the public has a charming treat in store, for this music has never before been presented in the city. One lovely tenor solo is an outstanding feature of the cantata. This will be given by Mr. Edgar Sprague of Columbus, who comes with the very highest recommendations. Tickets may be secured from any member of the chorus.

Mrs. Alan N. Jordan, Miss Doris Moore and Miss Mildred Fisher will motor to Cincinnati tomorrow to attend the May Festival.

The Misses Esther and Rose Laboll of Fourth street are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Emil Longini of Cincinnati.

as a Quaker meeting. "Arms rest! Fall out!" was the next command.

The twins thought he was talking to them. "My goodness!" whispered Nancy. "How'd he know we were here? He isn't even looking at us."

"We won't fall out—so there!" she called down. "We'll climb down if you make us, but we won't fall!" Captain Bow Legs and Lieutenant Shiny Boots looked up in surprise, and instantly saluted when they saw who it was. "We were looking for you," the captain said.

"We just thought so," answered Nick. "That's why we hid."

"We have orders to take you to General Hobbledohoy," said the Captain. "Come on down."

There was nothing else to do. Down scrambled the twins and got in line. Then the drum started to rat a tat again.

Away they all marched. Nancy and Nick wondered what was going to happen.

JACK DAW'S ADVENTURES IN THE LAND OF MINEY MOE

"How do you do, sir," said Jack, as he walked right up to the gate-man. "Benny Meany the mystic man of Miney Moe has told me of the wonderful sights in the Elephant Palace, and I would like to see them."

"Well," came the squeaky reply, "there is only one way I can open the gates for you."

"And how is that?" asked Jack. "First you must agree to carry water for our elephants." "Oh," shouted Jack. "I'll gladly do that. I used to carry water for the elephants of a circus." And then the gates swung open again and Jack looked in upon a whole herd of big and little elephants.

Jack was so thrilled, he just stood and said, "Oh!" and then he came close to his master, seemingly afraid of the big beasts. Suddenly the gate-man spoke again. "Now, young man," said he, "you can start to carry water." And he handed Jack a pail that was too big for even a man to handle. (Continued.)

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Miss Wise—
Wish you would tell me what's wrong with me. Am I jealous or not? There is a girl where my husband works who seems to think a lot of him and is always giving him candy and chewing gum and when I offer him anything like that he says I don't like candy or gum. Now Dolly this makes me mad and I throw her up to him. He talks about her a great deal and is always talking about her pretty dresses and seems to know all her business. Now would you care if you were me? I can't bear her name. He is good to me, but don't seem to care whether I have anything new or not. We have several children and he is proud of them. Dolly I am awfully blue. Tell me what to do. Your advice will be appreciated.

WILD FLOWER.
I think you are making your life miserable and unhappy over nothing. You are very foolish to let yourself get jealous over a girl who works in the same office with your husband.

Even if he does talk about her, that is no reason for you to get jealous. If he mentioned the affairs at the office at all, he would have to mention her along with the others. Talking about her pretty dresses may be a hint to you to doll up a bit. Men and women can't very well work in the same office without speaking, but that is no sign they are in love, not by a jug full. They are anything but that. Why not invite the girl up and get better acquainted with her and see for yourself what she is like and what she wears. When you come to find out the real facts in the case, the girl may not have a bit of use for your husband.

Dear Dolly—Did not an account of the death of Rudyard Kipling appear on the front page of the "Times" last fall or winter? About November or December? If not, can you tell me whether he is still living or not. I am under the impression that he is dead, but other persons of much more literary knowledge and authority think that he is still living.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT.
Kipling is very much alive. He gained considerable notoriety last fall when a New York newspaper woman published an alleged interview with him in which he boasted America in everything. He denied being interviewed by the woman, and said he did not say a word that she published, etc. Kipling's home is in England.

Dear Dolly—I am a married woman with three children and my husband don't treat me right. He has mistreated me by going with other women and has let me at night till after midnight by myself, and as I am in a strange place I am so nervous I don't know what to do. He doesn't seem to care for me and the children, and says that he never aims to do himself down any more and is going out whenever the notion strikes him. When he comes home from work he doesn't want to talk to me. The nights he does not go down he will go out and sit on the porch until bedtime and it is too cold for me to sit out with the baby. He has an affinity and I don't think it is right and I am not going to stay any longer. Dolly could I get alimony if I went back to my people? I have been living in Portsmouth over three years and like it fine, but I haven't any people here and I have no one to go to with my troubles and my husband won't listen to me. Dolly, please give me a little encouragement.

DISCOURAGED WIFE.
I don't think your case is hopeless, and I don't imagine your husband would try and make your home a little more pleasant for him. You did not mention any fault other than going out without you, and not speaking to you. It is better to keep still than to quarrel, and if you are the nagging kind, you would probably be quarrelling all the time if he would talk back to you or help you along. Are you just supposing he has an affinity, or do you know for sure that he has. You must be slipping if you can't keep peace with other women. You did not say anything about money matters, so if you have all you want to spend why not doll yourself up and stop out occasionally. You could get someone to care for your children on the evenings you want to go out with your husband or with your girl friends or neighbors. Got mysterious. Go out and stay until after he comes in, even if it is only next door or to one of your neighbors. If you get him anxious, maybe he will stick around to see that you stay at home. I think that it would do you good to go home for a visit, if only for a couple of weeks. You are tired and nervous and homesick, and when you get that way you can imagine most anything.

Marie—Anything that they could use in their home would make an appropriate gift. It need not be expensive, since an announcement does not call for a present. Just enclose your card with the gift. If you think you ought to say anything on it you might write on the back of it, "With best wishes for a long and happy wedded life," or something to that effect.

BROWNIE.
People who live in the country can't very well get rid of tan, as they are out in the sun so much. However, if you want to try your luck you might mix magnesia in soft water to the consistency of paste, then spread it on the face and let it remain for a minute or two; then wash off with castile soap and rinse with soft water.

Mismatched Married Man.—It is useless for me to say anything to you, as you admit that you are doing wrong, but refuse to do otherwise. Perhaps I can appeal to your pride, if you happen to know the meaning of the word. Since the woman refuses to have anything to do with you, or even recognize you on the street, I should think you would have pride enough or spunk enough to let her alone. Pick up your self-respect and give the time and affection that you are wasting on this woman, to your wife and children, and see what a difference it will make in your life, and also in theirs. Just try it for awhile, anyway, and see how it works out. After a few weeks you will feel like slapping yourself on the wrist for being such a chump.

A Silly Woman.—If you could read my mail even for a day, you would feel terribly ashamed of yourself for complaining about your lot when you have, as you say, a "darling husband." I hope he thinks he has a darling wife, and I hope you will never give him reason to think otherwise. Since you realize that your case is hopeless so far as the other man is concerned, I think you should eliminate him from your thoughts and your life forever. It is so foolish to long for impossible things. It is like trying to find the end of a rainbow. Even if you had the other man, you would not be satisfied. You would wish for your present hubby. Some people are never satisfied.

Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

A wedding of unusual interest, owing to the prominence of the young couple, was quietly and beautifully solemnized this afternoon when Miss Laura Ruth Craigmiles became the bride of Mr. J. Earl Chandler. The ceremony was performed at half after one o'clock in the parsonage of the Trinity Methodist Episcopal church by the pastor, Rev. William C. Millikan, who officiated with the impressive ring ceremony.

The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mohl, a bride and groom of recent date, the former being a nephew of the bride. Mrs. Mohl was charmingly attired in her wedding gown of dark blue tulle with gray accessories, and wore a corsage of butter flowers and roses.

Mrs. Chandler, who is an unusually attractive young woman, was strikingly beautiful in her wedding gown of dark blue crepe, built on Grecian lines, and artistically beaded. She wore a becoming picture hat to correspond and carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses and orchids.

Immediately after the ceremony an informal reception was held for the immediate family at the home of the bride, during which a delicious ice course was served. The rooms were arranged with spring flowers and greenery, and the table was lovely in its appointments of pink and white.

Later in the afternoon the happy couple left on a ten days' motor trip that will take them as far east as New York City and will include many places of interest enroute. Mrs. Chandler's traveling suit was a smart sport model with ensemble to harmonize.

Upon their return they will take up their residence with the bride's mother, where they will make their home for the present.

Mrs. Chandler is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Madara Craigmiles of 1720 Sixth street, and for the past few years has been one of the efficient salesgirls in Marting Bros. department store. She has a charming personality and has endeared herself to a large number of friends.

Mr. Chandler is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Chandler of 1902 Grandview avenue. He is quite popular in business and political circles and is at present occupying the position of City Auditor.

The bride presented her attendant with a handsome jewel bracelet, while Mr. Chandler gave his best man a pair of gold cuff links.

The following from Saturday's Daily Telegraph of Wheeling, W. Va., will be read with interest, as Dr. A. Edward Severinghaus is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Charles Severinghaus of Baird avenue:

"Announcement of the engagement of Miss Sara Nay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Nay, of the Island, to Dr. A. Edward Severinghaus, of Peking, China, was made today at noon at a luncheon given by her sisters, Misses Virginia and Martha Nay, at their home. Miss Nay plans to sail in June for China and will be married at once by Bishop Herbert Welch, resident bishop of Korea, who was president of Ohio Wesleyan college at Delaware, Ohio, when Miss Nay graduated there."

"Dr. Severinghaus received his education at the University of Wisconsin and took post-graduate work at Columbia University. He is now a member of the staff of Peking Union Medical college. He is a son of Rev. and Mrs. Charles Severinghaus of Portsmouth, Ohio."

Miss Nay graduated at Ohio Wesleyan and took post-graduate work at Cornell and Columbia.

Out-of-town guests at today's luncheon were:

Miss Esther Severinghaus, of Portsmouth, Ohio; Miss Adeline Root of Parkersburg; Miss Helen Rexford of Cleveland; Mrs. Ernest Elliman and Mrs. Roy Hull, of Dayton; Miss Claire Patterson, of Pittsburgh.

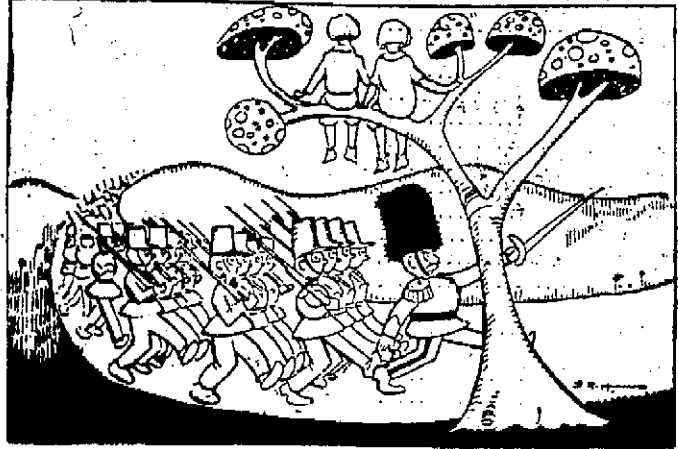

Other guests were: Misses Nettie Young, Virginia Higgins, Lucie Hicks, Catherine McNamee, Laura Wincher, Mary Scott, Elena Seamon, Maude Murrin, Elizabeth Seamon, Lillian Murrin, Esther McMillen, Catherine Bryan, Jennie Ball, Helen Garden, Pearl Dorsey, Evelyn Bassett, Elizabeth Hicks, Elizabeth McKee, Catherine Crooks; Mesdames Charles Boyd, Claude Law, Hoy Poffenberger, George Paul Roberts, Howard Nay, Paul Smith.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Federated Shop Crafts will meet tonight at Brad's Hall at 7:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present as special reports are to be made.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barker

THE TWINS CAPTURED

Quick as two winks they scrambled up a tree.

Nancy and Nick were sitting beside the road in Bing-Lang Land wondering what to do next, when they heard the sound of a drum.

"They looked up quickly and saw a company of soldiers coming. 'Quick! Let's hide!' said Nick. 'They are the soldiers and if they see us they may put us both in prison because you helped me to escape.'"

So, quick as two winks they scrambled up a tree right beside the road. And just in time—for with a few more rat a tat tats, the soldiers reached the very spot where the Twins had been sitting.

The soldiers never suspected that right over their heads two pairs of eyes were watching everything they did.

"Half!" commanded Captain Bow Legs. Instantly the soldiers stood like statues. The drummer stopped rat a tatting, and everything was as quiet as a Quaker meeting. "Arms rest! Fall out!" was the next command. The Twins thought he was talking to them!

"My goodness!" whispered Nancy. "How'd he know we were here? He isn't even looking at us!"

"We won't fall out—so there!" she called down. "We'll climb down if you make us, but we won't fall!"

Captain Bow Legs and Lieutenant Shiny Boots looked up in surprise, and instantly saluted when they saw who it was. "We were looking for you," the captain said.

"We just thought so," answered Nick. "That's why we hid."

"We have orders to take you to General Hobbledchoy," said the Captain. "Come on down."

There was nothing else to do. Down scrambled the Twins and got in line. Then the drum started to rat a tat again.

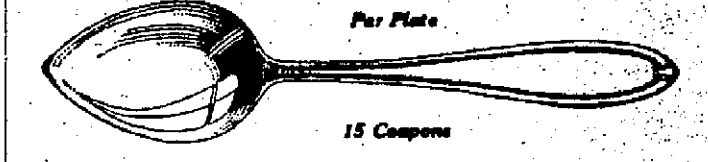

Away they all marched. Nancy and Nick wondered what was going to happen.

(To Be Continued)

The classic dance revue, given by the Portsmouth and Ironton pupils of Miss Florence Young's classes, was a most delightful and perfectly produced affair with an exceptional display of talent.

The recital showed careful preparation and certainly was a remarkable recommendation of the work of Miss Young. The recital was held before a big crowd Friday night in the high school auditorium.

Kiddies Happy; Big Circus Here Friday

During the past twenty years America has been invaded by numerous Australian fighters or boxers of more or less ability, but recently there arrived in this country a quartet of ring artists that promise to make themselves famous from coast to coast. Those wielders of the five ounce gloves are visiting the metropolitan cities with the Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus, and they are certain to be enthusiastically received when this big show appears here on the Seventeenth street lot next Friday, May 4.

A great sum of money was expended by the Hagenbeck-Wallace management in bringing these fighters from Australia, and it was necessary to spend considerable time in teaching them the Marquis of Queensbury rules. The little fellows learned rapidly and most of the bouts in which they appear usually end in a victory for them over their more husky and formidable opponents.

The four fighters observe the most stringent of training rules and are under the constant care of their trainers every hour of the night and day. Nothing is given them but the choicest of foods and they have been placed on a strict vegetarian diet. This is necessary as they appear twice daily in the ring and they must be kept at a certain weight and subject to none of the ills that affect some of the other boxers.

If you have not guessed by this time, the four fierce fighters are the champion boxing kangaroos of the universe, and the Hagenbeck-Wallace circus is the only show that has ever offered that number in a series of bouts on the hippodrome track. Early this spring the management was offered $5,000 for "Bob," the largest of the four, and the most finished boxer of any animal, but it was refused.

Market News

New York Stocks
NEW YORK, April 30—Speculative sentiment was still unsettled, but opening of today's market, stability of oil prices, and the fact that oil companies were not expected to combine with a consumption of oil in various sections of the list, imparted a heavy tone to most opening prices. Selling pressure was most effective in certain oil, sugar, independent steel and railroad shares but the initial declines as a result were limited to fractions. Eastman Kodak dropped two points in reflection of governmental anti-trust proceedings against that concern. Speculators for the decline, increased their offerings as trading progressed and initial losses were well extended. Oil and sugar were the hardest hit, losses of 1 to 2 points being recorded by General Asphalt, Cossden, Phillips Petroleum and Cuban American. Eastman Kodak extended its loss to three points and Dupont dropped 2 1/2. Losses of a point or more also were established by Crucible and Gulf States Steels and American Chemical. Tobacco Products and Stewart-Warner the last named dropping 1/4 points. The only outstanding strong spot was Consolidated Cigar, which advanced a point. Foreign exchanges opened firm. Demand sterling advanced half a cent to 46 3/4 and French francs advanced one point to 67 1/2 cents.

Prices sagged steadily throughout most of the day during the morning. Recent disquieting developments in the sugar and oil industries, made those areas susceptible to bear pressure. Losses of 1 to 2 points being common. Marking up of the call money renewal rates to 5 1/2 percent while regarded as merely incidental to May payments had a restraining effect on business and there was comparatively little activity. American Locomotive, California Petroleum, Pittsburgh and West Virginia and Virginia Carolina Chemical preferred were among the few issues to successfully combat the downward trend of prices, the latter ranging from 1 to 1 1/2 points. American Express dropped five points, Market Street Railway second preferred 3, Canadian Pacific 2 1/2 and Houston Oil 2.

Speculators for the decline forced another recession in prices in today's stock market. The oil and sugar shares bore the brunt of the attack on a reduction in refined sugar prices and another cut in mid-continent crude oil. Specialties dropped 1 to 5 points and railroad shares 1 to 4.

Sales approximated 840,000 shares. The closing was heavy.

Chicago-Grain And Provisions
CHICAGO, April 30—Selling out on the part of holder of May contracts who wished to avoid acceptance of deliveries tomorrow had a bearish influence in the wheat market today during the early dealings. July and September being affected as well as May. Favorable weather for completion of spring wheat seeding was an additional bearish factor. Estimates however, indicating that abandonment of winter wheat acreage this season had been exceeded only once in the last ten years helped somewhat to steady the market. Opening prices varied from the same as Saturday's finish to 1/2c lower with May 1 1/2 to 1 1/2c and July 1 1/2 to 1 1/2c were followed by a moderate setback all around.

Corn and oats declined with wheat. After opening 1/4 to 1/2c lower July 80 1/2 to 80 1/2c the corn market continued to sag.

The finish was unsettled at 1c net lower to 1 1/2c advance with May 1 1/2 to 1 1/2c and July 1 1/2 to 1 1/2c.

Oats started unchanged to 1/2c lower July 45 1/2. Later all months showed a loss.

Provisions were easier as a result of grain weakness.

The close was firm 1/2 to 1 1/2c net higher July 2 1/2.

Appeal Made for Students For College of Business

April 30, 1923

Portsmouth, Ohio,
Dear Editor:

After having been in the good state of Ohio, two weeks, I wish to express through your columns my appreciation to the public. I have never had better and more loyal co-operation anywhere. The public has assisted me in every possible way. I wish I could express to the public in person the thanks they so richly deserve.

The Portsmouth College of Business is planning to take care of more students this year than we have ever taken care of before. Business demands that we double our enrollment. It is an evident fact that we will more than double our present enrollment by September 3. Now is an ideal time to enroll. Students can be more than half through with their course, that enroll now, by September 3. We shall be glad to enroll students at any time for day or night courses. Make your arrangements to enroll today, tomorrow never comes.

At this writing we have had twenty-four calls in less than three weeks. You could be filling some of the positions that are open if you had prepared yourself. Think of this. It is a serious matter. Opportunity don't come every day. The boys and girls of today are the business people of the future.

To be successful you must specialize in the work you expect to follow. When the United States entered the World War every man who entered the service of his country was classified. By so doing we built the greatest fighting force in the world. Classify yourself today and work to that classification and success is yours. We invite the public to visit our institution, meet our people and exchange ideas with us. We shall be glad to have you call when we are in session in order that you may see our faculty and students in action. The latch is on the outside, walk in.

Respectfully,
FRED CARPENTER, Representative.

Yesteryears In Sport

TEN YEARS AGO, on April 28, 1913, Manager Joe Tinker of the Reds was ousted by the umpire from the game for protesting a decision.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO, on April 28, 1898, Kid McPartland and Joe Walcott fought eight rounds to a draw at Detroit Auditorium.

Martin Muldoon accepted an offer for a wrestling match with Chalky Polak, Polish wrestler.

Do you know Baseball?

by DICK LACES

QUESTIONS

ONE—What is an illegally batted ball?

TWO—Can a batsman take his team if hit by a slowly pitched ball?

THREE—Has a base runner the right to steal on a foul tip that is caught?

FIVE—What happens if a fielder prevents a runner from reaching a base by obstructing his progress?

ANSWERS

ONE—A ball batted by the batsman with one or both feet outside the lines of the batsman's position.

TWO—The degree of speed is given no consideration, if in the opinion of the umpire the batsman tried to avoid being hit.

THREE—The base runner certainly has such right.

FOUR—The ball is considered in play at such a time.

FIVE—The base runner is entitled to that base.

Kinks of the Links

What is the proper procedure to follow as to playing from the tee or up to the greens when you are closely following some other match. Is it permissible to drive from the tee after the players in the match ahead have reached their ball after having played one stroke?

No player should drive from the tee until the previous match has played their second stroke and are out of range. If, for some reason, the second shot of some player should fail to get him out of range it is customary to refrain from teeing off until he has done so. It is not permissible to play up to the putting green until the party ahead has teed off and moved away.

If a player, after a shot which gets his ball on the green, discovers that it is badly split, making it impossible to accurately putt the ball, has he the right to replace the damaged ball with a new one?

Upon discovering his ball is split for play, the player may change it, on intimating to his opponent his intention to do so.

Peebles Win From Lucasville

The Lucasville nine lost to Peebles Sunday, 5 to 3 on the Peebles lot. Lucasville, with three of their regulars out, could not get enough hits off Little to win. Runyon and Sellers worked for Lucasville. The Valley town nine goes to Waverly next Sunday.

Willis Will Manage Ironton Eagle Team

Ray Willis, one of the best known local baseball players, is to lead the I. O. Eagles nine, this season. The newly formed organization will open the season May 6 at Greenup. Games are to be booked with Portsmouth, Nitro, Edgewater, Williamson, Huntington, Kenova and other cities in this section.

Detroit Bails On Trade With Cleveland Club

DETROIT, April 30.—A deal whereby Outfielder Flagstead of the Detroit club was to go to Cleveland seems to have been temporarily halted.

The Cleveland club's outfielder made up almost entirely of left-handed batters. The trade which sent Evans to Washington caused Speaker to lose a right-handed batter who could be brought into the game against southpaw pitching. Speaker realizes he needs such a man.

Russell Team Wins

The Russell, Ky., team evidently is just as strong as ever this season, as they beat the Red Rangers of Ironton, Sunday, 4 to 1. Big Joe Willis was on the mound for the Red Rangers.

Firpo May Meet Willard

NEW YORK, April 30.—Matching of Jess Willard with Luis Angel Firpo, instead of Floyd Johnson May 12, has been suggested to Promoter Rickard by Chairman Muldoon of the state athletic commission. It was learned last night. Muldoon believes that since Johnson failed to stop Fred Fulton decisively in Jersey City Monday night there has been a popular demand for a re-arrangement of the match.

Muldoon suggested that in the event Willard faces the South American, Johnson should be matched against Jack McAuliffe in the semi-main event. Under the present arrangement McAuliffe and Firpo will be opponents.

Russell Team Plays Here Next Sunday

The local baseball season in Muldoon will be ushered in next Sunday when Olin Lewis' crack club will face the strong Russell, Ky., team.

The Kentuckians always have a real brook will be used in next Sunday team and no doubt will draw well here. Catcher Hubert of the Russell team is a Portsmouth boy.

"TAKE A HEALTH SWING, PRES." SAYS BABE RUTH

NEW YORK, April 30.—President Harding and Babe Ruth were the main attractions at a recent game in which the president was the guest of honor.

The president and the Babe shook hands vigorously, and for a minute were in earnest conversation, while the cameras clicked and movie operators ground out yards of film.

What did the Babe say to the president?

Did he talk baseball or wish the president the best of luck?

Well, here is the low down on what passed between the nation's executive and the "Sultan of Swat."

"How is your golf game, president?" asked Babe.

"I am in a slump," replied President Harding. "Don't seem to be able to get any distance from the tee."

"Slump is my middle name," replied Babe. "Haven't hit one on the nose for three days, but I'll try to oblige today with a long one over the right field wall."

The Babe who is nothing if not original, did oblige, hitting a long ball far up into the right field bleachers. The following inning Ruth was again called to president's box and after congratulating Ruth on the drive the president remarked:

"That is just the way I would like to hit 'em from the tee."

You got to take a healthy swing, president," answered Babe.

Some of the Yankees insist that Babe got familiar and addressed the president as "Pres," but Babe emphatically denies the accusation.

Walter Camp's Comment On Sport

(BY WALTER CAMP) (Special Correspondent of The Times) (Copyright, 1923)

NEW YORK, April 30.—The loss of Chick Evans to the American golfing team that is invading England in an attempt to bring back the Walker Cup is really more serious than appears on the surface. Without him, Capt. Bob Gardner's team is hard hit, for Evans would bring to the team the seasoning of a champion, a style that is always sure to impress and somewhat awe his opponents and if he were going well on the greens he could beat anybody in the world.

With Chick Evans added to the men who are left on this side, it is a strong army playing on the home links rather than representing us in the Walker cup and British Amateur championship competition. Evans, Bobby Jones, Hady Knepper, Jess Gifford and Gerald Frier would compare well with any of the five of the teams that has gone over. But perhaps this 1923 team will make a more formidable array than the team we sent to Holfake, though the names on that team were Chick Evans, Bobby Jones, and Jesse Gifford. They may profit by their experience.

The whole trouble with our Holfake team was concentrated in two intercontinental bunkers. This modern golf architecture, too, has built too many greens banked up against the shot so that the ball settles nicely and cannot bound up and run over. British greens are more natural.

Moreover, the education of the British golfer includes not only the high pitch shot, but also the low pitch and run. Wherever he has a chance, having opened up the hole, to use this run up shot, the British golfer does it and his ball stays on the greens. The American shot, on the other hand, will not stay on with a high wind and keen, hard green.

If Captain Bob Gardner can get these facts well home to his team, there is no reason why they should not come through. But the Americans still have to prove that they can play a game that requires keeping in the middle of the course from the tee and playing direction in order to open

BILLY EVANS SAYS

"What is the most important shot in golf?"

"Recently I put that question to Jack Hutchison."

"That question is asked me more often than any other," he replied.

"If one aspires to play between 70 and 80, every short is important. The slightest slip in any department of play will give the score card a black eye."

"I would say that a player must first perfect his driving if he is to get anywhere with his game. By driving I do not mean for distance, rather I have in mind accuracy."

"The desire to drive for distance is a fault that handicaps many golfers. Distance is not everything, accurate driving, that doesn't result in such a long ball, is far more important. I would say that accurate driving was the most important feature of golf play."

"A well-placed shot from the tee enables the player to put his second shot on the green, which is greatly desired by every player. Getting on the green in two offers great possibilities."

"It strikes me that a second shot that gets you on the green must be considered more important than the approach putt, or mashie-niblick pitch."

"To a great many beginners the pitch over a brook or a trap or bunker is a nightmare. In reality it is an easy shot if the player would just think so. It is the hazard that is uppermost in the mind of the player, which makes the shot hard to accomplish. If the brook or trap wasn't there the player would make the shot in a matter of fact manner and do it perfectly. Such hazards never bother the skilled player."

"A short putt to win a match with much at stake is far more difficult to the pro player than the pitch over the hazard."

WAIVING ON McINNIS MAY COST ST. LOUIS TEAM THE PENNANT

Waiving on Stuffy McInnis may cost the St. Louis Browns the pennant.

When the Cleveland club inaugurated the policy of rebuilding its team McInnis, a veteran player, did not fit in. Incidentally, McInnis was drawing $14,000 a year for his services.

Having so decided, the Cleveland club asked the seven other clubs of the American League if any of them desired to take McInnis at the waiver price and assume his contract.

Although McInnis is slipping, he is still a great player and has two or three more years of good service ahead. Despite this, every club in the American League passed up the chance to get him. Possibly his fat contract had something to do with it.

It is known that after he was made a free agent several American League clubs tried to sign him up at a much lower salary.

St. Louis was the club that should have tied him up. It was a question at the time whether or not Sisler would be right. In order to be protected against the possibility that he might not play the Browns should have taken on McInnis.

Instead he was allowed to pass up. Illinois now has Sisler out of the lineup and the Browns are experimenting with an outfielder at first base.

Waiving on McInnis seems to have been a costly slip on the part of the Browns' management.

Local Team Beat Ironton Nailers, 17 To 9

Making their first appearance of the season on the diamond, Lewis' All Stars piled up a regular football score Sunday when they romped all over the Ironton Nailers and administered a crushing defeat to the Cincinnati outfit in its own backyard and some 500 home folks were there to see the downfall of their pets.

The final count was 17 to 9, with the invaders the class of the party both at bat and in the field throughout the combat which was a dragsy affair lasting nearly three hours due principally to the free hitting especially by the Portsmouth gang and the wildness of the pitchers on both sides. The visitors punched off the victory by mauling two pitchers and enjoying two fat sessions, the first of which was in the second inning when they registered eight markers and after then the result was never in doubt. Coleman, who essayed to pitch for the home team, lasted less than three rounds and DeLong fared little better, a fusillade of hits off his delivery in the last two rounds sending eight runs over the pan. The winners collected a total of 18 safe hits, Valodin, F. Keyser, Weber and J. Keyser leading with three each; one of the latter's swats being a triple and Dunham cut in with a double.

Lewis pitched the entire route for the invaders, and except for streaks of wildness was in fine form and master of the enemy at all times.

SHAKING A FIST AT RADIO

SONG writers and musical composers shook an angry fist at radio when they served notice that broadcasting stations throughout the country will be prosecuted, unless the copyright laws unless they pay royalties upon music used in aerial programs. Every owner of the humble home-made crystal receiving set is interested in that. He wonders how big stations would be able to broadcast literally free and to all who would if they were forced to pay a sizeable royalty every time a song is sung.

The representative of the song writers and composers painted what was meant to be a gloomy picture.

The situation is serious. Radio is affecting the sales of sheet music and of phonograph records. The radio sets are placed on top of the phonographs, which are never even opened any more. In New York and St. Louis apartment houses are being built with attachments for radio sets in every apartment, and I believe this will be done all over the United States.

Radio can best leave the answer to that to the phonograph record makers, who are said to pay a royalty of two cents on each record. Are they likely to confess that radio has made the phonograph a back number? One shudders at the possibility.

What Mr. Rosenthal of the "Society of Authors, Composers and Publishers of America" has done is to pay a handsome tribute to radio; a tribute that is none the less impressive because it is perhaps overdrawn. He says that not more than a dozen song writers in America are now able to support themselves out of their earnings. Which may mean that radio has taught Americans to be more discriminating!

AN ASTOUNDING EXCEPTION

EVERY town in the United States has ambition to grow and grow, not without secret hope of being the biggest in the world, that is all have, with one exception, and that the very last to be expected to be so humble—Chicago.

Yes, it is strange to say the Windy City, with starting self-abasement, doesn't expect ever to be the world's greatest, sees herself as only the third. Even in her modesty she may find herself disappointed. If she never hopes to catch up with London and New York she has yet to pass Paris and Berlin. Besides she has to keep ahead of Buenos Aires and Rio de Janeiro. These cities are the metropolises of highly and as yet scantily developed empires and growing rapidly, a half century, as things go now, may see both outstripping New York.

Nor is it that all Chicago has to fear in her humble expectations. St. Louis sits three hundred miles away. At present she doesn't appear much of a rival, but St. Louis is growing, steadily, solidly, and in reality is larger than the census figures have appeared. She has never caught the expansion fever and there are hundreds of thousands that are her citizens in all respects, save that civil corporation laws do not allow her to enumerate them in her population, though they will inevitably be made citizens in time. Already the future greatness of St. Louis is shown in the fact that she sells more boots and shoes, raw furs, stoves, horses and mules, sugar, mill machinery, steel furnaces, hardware and pine, millinery, hats, coffins, bags, trunks, hides, chemicals, saddles and harness and carpets than any other city. She has the largest factories on earth devoted to the manufacture of shoes, drugs, brick, street cars, macaroni, plug tobacco and terra cotta, and leads all other cities in the diversity of her industries. She lies in the heart of the west, where seventy percent of all the agricultural products are grown. The greatest cities of the world were always built on the rivers. St. Louis is on the greatest of rivers.

A Brooklyn girl, declared to have the most beautiful hands in America, says that dish-washing made them perfect. Perhaps that will mean relief for mothers. And probably it won't.

A Chicago charity worker says a working girl can dress on $6.50 a month, but she cannot have rouge, permanent waves or silk stockings. And without these she calls it dressing!

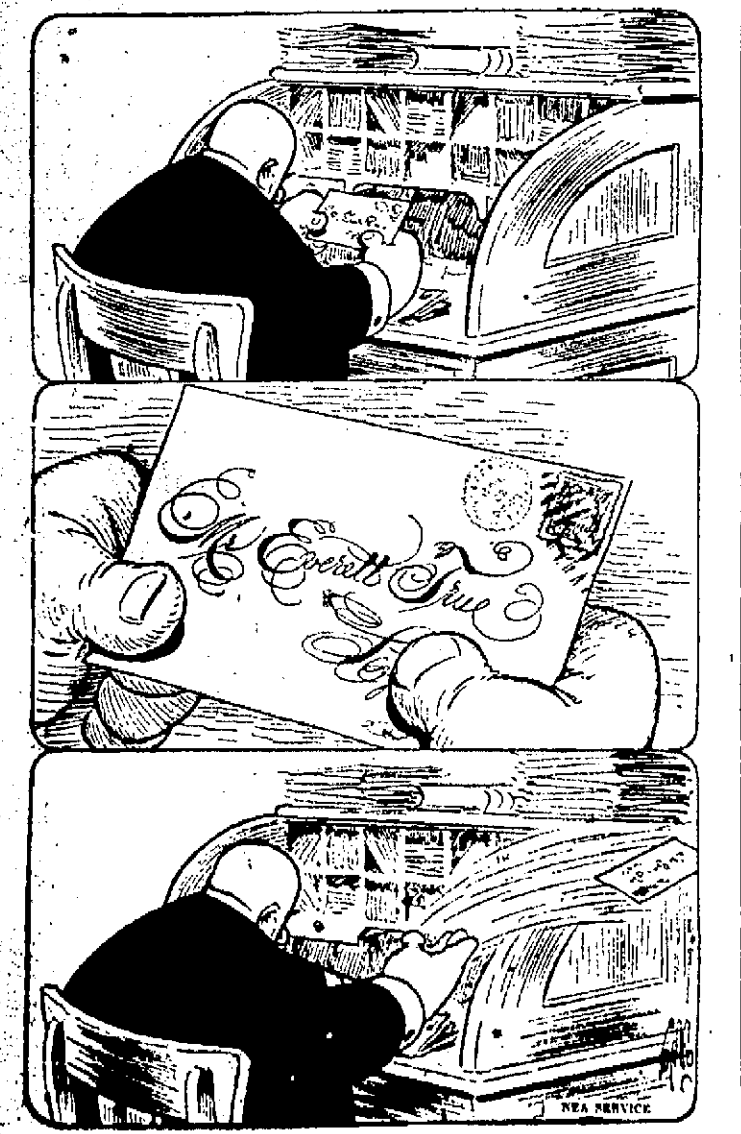

Germany hopes France will cease to manifest her enmity toward the Teutons. 'Tis too bad, since Germany has done nothing to deserve it.

With all these efforts at non-stop records it is made pretty clear that the jazz mania has run into a frightful delirium.

Used to be said every man's home was his castle. From some recent developments it looks like that last word would have to be changed to "still."

Looks like some fellows are trying to prove that strikes are a sign of good times.

EVERETT TRUE BY CONDO

New York-Day-By-Day

BY A. C. McNAUGHT

NEW YORK, April 30.—A page from the diary of a modern Samuel Pepys. Lay late and loath to begin my diary. So with a Roebuck in his benzine wagon to a film studio and talked awhile with Hope Hampton, Alan Dwan and Ben Lie Cascares.

Lord! the ghastly faces under studio lights and the ungodliest yelling and noise; nor can I see how entertainment is fashioned out of such hokum-potage soever. A great lassitude has come to me with the season, which is a pity.

In the afternoon to my tailor and then to play ten pins, but not braveling, so to call on my "sister-in-law," Virginia Long, newly home from Central America, and much rag, tag and bobtail, and she is pretty as ever. This day I dined my new dinner surmount with shiken, collard, very noble, and with my wife, the Plaza for dinner with Misses Peggy Hoyt and her husband, and the Lyndecker brothers, the artists, there and several others, all very gay. So home and to bed.

The correct pronunciation of the famous diarist Pepys is a matter of controversy among a New York literary society. Some say it is "Pee-pis," and others "Pep-pis." One of the scholarly librarians declares it is "Pee-pis." In England the pronunciation is generally "Pee-pis."

The hotel in the "Algonquin set" over the alleged barring of Jews in the dining room of the hotel, where the "Vicious Circle" luncheon is reported to have caused a serious split among the intelligentsia. Some past others without speaking and a new group has transferred their patronage to another luncheon place. The "Vicious Circle" is composed of dramatic critics, book reviewers and newspaper columnists. All of them "tongue-in-the-check" lads and so cynical. Quite!

The king of curb salesmen, Henry Schwartz, gave a fiftieth anniversary birthday party recently. Street hawkers from Maine to California attended and spun tales of adventures in selling iron cures, rubber combs, false noses, fake ink spots, joke books, fountain pens and the like.

A REGULAR GIRL

By Bert Braley

SAY, what do you mean by a Regular Girl? Well, that's a bit puzzling to state. Her hair has, perhaps, an irregular curl. Or maybe it's perfectly straight; And maybe she's pretty and maybe she's not. And maybe she's stately or short; But somehow or other you always can spot.

A girl who's the regular sort.

THERE'S always a regular feminine charm. To all of her regular ways. There's purity, too, which no evil can harm. There's honor and truth in her gaze; But there's an irregular whimsical twist. To some of her thoughts and her acts. Which makes her exceedingly hard to resist. For mystery always attracts.

SHE'S eager and jocular and vivid and smart. She's healthy and wholesome and sweet. Her Regular smile gives each masochist heart.

A slightly irregular heart: A Regular Pal you can bank on for life. With faith no hard luck can dispell. And a Regular Girl makes a Regular Wife. And a Regular Mother as well.

"Well, ma'am," said the old man, "my regular price is a dollar, but, seeing as it's such a bad night, and the going so terrible, I'll call it seventy-five cents."—The Christian Register (Boston).
